2. The immediate case in point arises out of a complaint by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers lodged with the MLRB that will not recognize STATINTL them as the bargaining unit for certain employees of responds with the theory that from the nature of their service all employees in varying capacities and degrees fall in the category of guards within the meaning of the Taft-Hartley Act, which forbids representation by the same unit of guard forces as opposed to normal employees. Aside from security aspects, our policy in this regard should probably be coordinated with that of ASC.
